

INDEX TO VOLUME II.

- A.
- Ademollo, A., La Giustizia a Roma dal 1674 al 1737, 188
- Agnosticism, 87—Gnosticism and Agnosticism, the two extreme opinions respecting human knowledge, ib.—their definition, ib.—each has been regarded as a heresy, 88—the question between them, 89—each assumes that we possess a faculty which transcends the order of nature, ib.—this assumption untenable, ib.—the sense of ignorance not identical with the sense of mystery, 90—their difference, 91—the vision of the supernatural comes to the Gnostic and the Agnostic, ib.—examination of the four theories of the origin of life, 92—the sense of limit gives the evidence of the supernatural, 100—the supernatural reached by the study of self, ib.
- Angus Graeme, Gamekeeper, by Author of A Lonely Life, &c., 184
- Archæology in the South-West of Scotland, 70—Collections, published by the Ayr and Wigton Association, ib.—Rev. George Wilson on the antiquities of Wigtonshire, 71—Dr. Munro's Ancient Scottish Lake-Dwellings, 72—no trace of river-drift or cave men in Ayr and Wigton, 73—Hunterston rock-shelter, ib.—lacustrine settlements of the Pæonians, 75—wide diffusion of lake-dwellings, ib.—Swiss lake-dwellings, ib.—Dr. Keller's description of fascine dwellings, 76—similarity of Irish and Scottish crannogs, ib.—crannogs of Loch Dowalton, 77—of the Loch of Kilbirnie, 79—of Lochlee, 80—of Buston, 83—relics found in the crannogs, 84—builders of the crannogs, ib.—their skill, 86—the crannogs originally permanent and not occasional dwelling places, ib.
- Antologia, Nuova, ... 292, 403
- B.
- Barlow, G., A Life's Love, ... 180
- Bell, D., Among the Rocks Around Glasgow, ... 180
- Benn, A. W., The Greek Philosophers, ... 156
- Browning, R., a representative poet, 349—Jocoseria, ... 397
- Buchheim, C. A., Lessing's Nathan der Weise, ... 182
- Burghs, Early Scottish, 45—utility of Scottish Burgh Records, ib.—origin of Scottish burghs, 46—selection of sites, ib.—their value and privileges, 47—their constitution, 48—their relations with the Crown, 49—burghship: its privileges, 50—exercised by women, 53—its duties, 54—monopolies enjoyed by burgesses, 55—general law and practice modified by burgh laws, 56—right of burghs to elect their own magistrates, 57—town councils, 58—liners, 59—apprisers of flesh, &c., 60—reciprocal duties imposed by the Laws of the Four Burghs, 61—merchant guilds, 62—laws of the guild of Scotland, 63—crafts and occupations in burghs, 66—the beneficial influence of burghs in national life, 67.
- C.
- Cantu, C., Alessandro Manzoni, 174
- Carlyle, Letters of Mrs., Edited by J. A. Froude, 127—her Diary, ib.—Mr. Froude as an editor, 128—charges brought against Mr. Carlyle, ib.—character of Mrs. Carlyle, 130—of her letters, 133—her relations with her husband, 136—domestic causes of her troubles, 139—residence in London, 142—interest in her husband's labours, 143—her visitors and visits, 144—Count d'Orsay and Lord Jeffrey, 145—general impression produced by her letters, 146.
- Ciampoli, J., Trece Nere, ... 188
- Civilta Cattolica, La, ... 205, 407
- Cotterill, Rev. H., Does Science aid Faith in regard to Creation? ... 387
- Cunningham, Rev. Dr., Church History of Scotland, ... 391

- D.
- Deutsche Rundschau, ... 198, 401
 Daudet, A. L'Évangéliste, ... 186
 Drummond, N., Natural Law
 in the Spiritual World, ... 384
- E.
- Emerson's Social Philosophy, his estimate of custom, 222—denunciation of 'conformity,' 223—'Poverty demoralizes,' 225—his social ideal, 226—his teaching respecting the duties that are nearest to us, 228—on expenditure, 229—the effort of all should be to produce, 230—character and circumstance, 231—his peculiar power as a teacher, 232—his private judgments, 233—purity of his writings, 233.
 Endowments, Educational and Secondary Education, 1—history and condition of primary and secondary education compared, ib.—Educational Endowments Act of 1882, 5—insufficiency of existing arrangements for secondary education, ib.—two kinds of secondary schools required, 6—Rural School Boards and higher education, 7—the proper destination of educational endowments, 8—effect of Lord Young's Act, 9—the anomalous position of secondary education, 11—the law of supply and demand and secondary education, 13—claims of the middle classes, 14—their supineness in educational matters, 15—State management and private enterprise, 16—economy of a system of secondary schools, 17—need for a Minister of Education, 20—his functions, ib.—University education in relation to secondary schools, 22—increasing desire for technical education, 24.
- F.
- Fairbairn, A. M., The City of God, 148
 Fitch, J. G., Lectures on Teaching, 168
 Fleming, J., Life of Alexander
 Fleming, D.D., ... 395
- G.
- Geddie, J., The Russian Empire, 172
 Gids, De, ... 206, 414
 Greville, Leaves from the Diary of H., Edited by Viscountess Enfield, ... 393
 Goethe, Select Poems of, Edited by E. A. Sonnenschein & A. Pogatscher, ... 183
- H.
- Haeckel, E., A Visit to Ceylon, 396
 Helps, Sir A., Thoughts in the Cloister and the Crowd, ... 180
 Herbert, G., Sacred Poems and Private Ejaculations, ... 400
 Highlands, The Future of the, 101—The Highlands afford a large field for the employment of capital, 102—for the development of their resources, railways required, 103—planting of forests, 107—encouragement of local industries, 111—free trade in land, 112—amendment of the Game Laws, 114—County government, 116.
 Hood, Paxton, Scottish Characteristics, ... 396
- J.
- Journal des Savants, ... 196
- K.
- Kerbaker, Prof. M., La Scienza delle Religioni, ... 164
- L.
- Lenormant, F., La Genèse, ... 388
 Livre, Le, ... 190, 407
 Lydon, A. F., Scottish Loch Scenery, ... 184
- M.
- Macaulay, Lord, 25—the Hon. A. S. G. Canning on Lord Macaulay, 26—Mr. Cotter Morison, 27—the climax of his abuse, 30—three essentials of a historian, 32—Macaulay's industry as a historian, ib.—his impartial judgment, 34—suspicions of his partiality accounted for and refuted, 36—the excellence of the History, the cause of hostile criticism, 40—the felicity of Lord Macaulay's style as a writer, 42—the enduring influence of his writings, 44.
 M'Dowall, W., The Man of the Woods, Burns in Dumfriesshire, ... 183
 Mahaffy, J. P., The Decay of Modern Preaching, ... 167
 Main, Thos., D.D., Memorials of the Life and Ministry of, Edited by his Widow, ... 173
 Martensen, Dr. H., Christian Ethics, ... 155
 Martha, C., Etudes Morales sur L'Antiquité, ... 163
 'Mean,' The, in Politics, see 'Politics,'

- Middle Classes, Educational Wrongs of, 209—indifference of Englishmen to symmetry of organisation illustrated by state of national education, ib.—middle classes greatest sufferers therefrom, 210—their contribution to the school-rate, ib.—state of secondary education, 211—in South-West of Scotland, ib.—difficulties in regard to higher schools, 213—unfairness of existing educational arrangements, 214—Continental system of education, 215—advantages to be derived from an organised system of secondary education, 217—disadvantages accruing to the middle classes from existing arrangements, 220.
- Middle Classes, Zola's Parisian, 301
- Moncrieff, Sir H. W., The Free Church Principle, ... 392
- Muir, Sir W., Annals of the Early Caliphate, ... 170
- Murdoch, A. G., The Scottish Poets, ... 184
- N.
- Nicoll, H. J. C., Sonnets, by C. Authors, ... 184
- P.
- Patriotism, Scottish, and Scottish Politics, 358—Lord Rosebery and Mr. Gladstone on the Local Government Board (Scotland) Bill, ib.—the desire of Scotland respecting it, 360—opinion in Scotland concerning the rejection of the Bill, 361—aim of the Bill, 363—legislation for Scotland, 364—the present tendency to make Cabinet offices bureaus for the supervision of special interests common to the Three Kingdoms, 366—can Scotland resist this tendency? ib.—the proposal to appoint an Under Home Secretary for Scotland, 367—arguments in favour of a Cabinet Minister, 368—creation of fresh Boards to be guarded against, 373—Mr. Dalgleish and Scottish patriotism, 374—Lord Rosebery's view, 376—Mr. J. Boyd Kinnear's, 380—Scottish politics of the future, 381.
- Poets, Three Representative, Mr. Tennyson, Mr. Swinburne, Mr. Browning, 334—recent development of criticism, 335—the French Revolution and modern history, 336—Wordsworth and Keats poetical ancestors of Tennyson, 337—Tennyson as an artist, 338—his natural instincts on the side of law, order, &c., 339—repelled by scepticism and heated enthusiasm, 341—his first and last word, 343—the spirit of Mr. Swinburne's poetry, the spirit of revolution, 343—his style as compared with Tennyson's, ib.—his spirit of revolt, 344—his defence of Poems and Ballads, 346—chastened character of his more recent poems, 349—Mr. Browning not a thinker par excellence and a poet par hasard, ib.—a parabolic description of his method, 351—'A Grammarian's Funeral,' ib.—Mr. Browning differentiated from the previously considered poets, 353—his call to us, 354.
- Politics, The 'Mean' in, 261—Aristotle's definition of a 'mean,' ib.—a Whig the 'mean' between an extreme Tory and an extreme Radical, 262—Lord Young's Act a good illustration of a 'mean' in politics, ib.—fixed principles in politics, 266—as applied to Church establishments, ib.—to the question of a Monarchy or Republic, 268—to the present condition of Russia, 270—to the land laws, 271—the probable best proof that the Whigs hold the 'mean,' 272—the significance of 'Liberty, Fraternity, Equality,' 273—Mr. G. W. E. Russel on the Whigs, 275—the Radical extreme on the Irish question, 277—Macaulay's description of political parties, 278—Mr. Gladstone and the Liberal party, 279—future of moderate Liberals, 280.
- Poole, R. S., The Cities of Egypt, 172
- Pressensé, E. de, A Study of Origins, ... 161
- Preussische Jahrbücher, ... 199, 403
- Pringle, John, ... 188
- Proctor, R. A., The Great Pyramid, ... 174
- R.
- Rassegna Nazionale, ... 205, 406
- Revue Archéologique, ... 196
- Do. des Deux Mondes, ... 193, 413
- Do. de l'Histoire des Religions, ... 189, 411
- Revue La Nouvelle, ... 197
- Do. Philosophique, ... 191, 409
- Reynold, J. W., The Supernatural in Nature, The Mystery of Miracles, ... 147

- |                                                                    |     |                                                       |          |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|-------------------------------------------------------|----------|
| Rivista Europea, ... ..                                            | 406 | Theologisch Tijdschrift, ... ..                       | 206, 415 |
| Roberts, Dr. A., Old Testament Revision, ... ..                    | 150 | Theology, Some Results of Scotch, 117                 |          |
| Ross, R. S., Ariadne in Naxos, ... ..                              | 181 | —character of Scottish theology, 118                  |          |
| Row, Rev. C. A., Revelation and Modern Theology Contrasted, ... .. | 383 | —effect on Scottish religion, 119—                    |          |
|                                                                    |     | rigid Sabbatarianism, 120—church                      |          |
|                                                                    |     | psalmody, 121—celebration of the                      |          |
|                                                                    |     | Lord's Supper, 122—funerals and                       |          |
|                                                                    |     | churchyards, 123—influence of Scotch                  |          |
|                                                                    |     | theology on character of people, 125.                 |          |
|                                                                    |     | Tipple, Rev. S. A., Sunday                            |          |
|                                                                    |     | Mornings at Norwood, ... ..                           | 154      |
|                                                                    |     |                                                       |          |
|                                                                    |     | V.                                                    |          |
|                                                                    |     | Veitch, Prof. John Hamilton, ... ..                   | 159      |
|                                                                    |     | Veitch, Douglas and Sophie, ... ..                    |          |
|                                                                    |     | Where and When, ... ..                                | 189      |
|                                                                    |     | Verga, G., Novelle Rusticani, ... ..                  | 188      |
|                                                                    |     | Vragen des Tijds, ... ..                              | 415      |
|                                                                    |     |                                                       |          |
|                                                                    |     | W.                                                    |          |
|                                                                    |     | Wallace, Edwin, Outlines of                           |          |
|                                                                    |     | the Philosophy of Aristotle, ... ..                   | 391      |
|                                                                    |     | Watson, Dr. A., Christ's Au-                          |          |
|                                                                    |     | thority, and other Sermons, ... ..                    | 386      |
|                                                                    |     | Wayside Songs, with other                             |          |
|                                                                    |     | Verse, ... ..                                         | 183      |
|                                                                    |     | Whitman, Walt, 281—Emerson on                         |          |
|                                                                    |     | Leaves of Grass , ib. —its first recep- |          |
|                                                                    |     | tion, 282—Whitman on adverse                          |          |
|                                                                    |     | criticism, 284—increasing popularity,                 |          |
|                                                                    |     | 285— Specimen Days and Collect , 286           |          |
|                                                                    |     | —the author's prose style, ib. —               |          |
|                                                                    |     | Leaves of Grass , 207—Whitman's                |          |
|                                                                    |     | aim, 288—his description of American                  |          |
|                                                                    |     | society, 286—of American literature,                  |          |
|                                                                    |     | 291—his defectiveness as an artist,                   |          |
|                                                                    |     | 292—his violation of a natural in-                    |          |
|                                                                    |     | stinct of the human mind, 295—dis-                    |          |
|                                                                    |     | tinguively American in spirit, 296—                   |          |
|                                                                    |     | his directness, ib. —mysticism, 297—           |          |
|                                                                    |     | modern in spirit, 298—suggestive-                     |          |
|                                                                    |     | ness of his writings, 299.                            |          |
|                                                                    |     |                                                       |          |
|                                                                    |     | Z.                                                    |          |
|                                                                    |     | Zeitschrift für Philosophie und                       |          |
|                                                                    |     | Philosophische Kritik, ... ..                         | 201      |
|                                                                    |     |                                                       |          |
|                                                                    |     | Erratum.                                              |          |
|                                                                    |     | Page 351, line 5, for 'Mr. Browning,                  |          |
|                                                                    |     | read Mr. Tennyson.                                    |          |
- |                                              |          |
|----------------------------------------------|----------|
| S.                                           |          |
| Schwarz, D. C., Predigten aus                |          |
| der Gegenwart (Achte samml-                  |          |
| lung), ... ..                                | 151      |
| Scotland in the Eighteenth Century—          |          |
| 1707, 234—the Union and the na-              |          |
| tional memory, ib. —the beginning     |          |
| of modern Scottish history, 235—             |          |
| population and towns at the Union,           |          |
| 237—social and moral atmosphere of           |          |
| the old Scottish burgh, 234—scarcity         |          |
| of money, 240—commerce and trade,            |          |
| 241—Lanarkshire, 243—Glasgow,                |          |
| 244—Renfrewshire, ib. —Strath-        |          |
| clyde, 245—the old Pictish land,             |          |
| 246—ships and tonnage, 247—rural             |          |
| condition of the country, ib. —       |          |
| dearths, ib. —pauperism, 248—state    |          |
| of agriculture, 250—feudal obliga-           |          |
| tions, 252—wretched condition of             |          |
| cottars, ib. —food of the people, 254 |          |
| —spirit of independence, ib. —roads,  |          |
| 246—past and present, 260.                   |          |
| Smith, W. C., North Country                  |          |
| Folk Poems, ... ..                           | 399      |
| Spurgeon, C. H., Farm Sermons,               |          |
| 153—The Treasury of David,                   |          |
| Vol. VI., ... ..                             | 149      |
| Stalker, Jas., M. A., The New                |          |
| Song, and other Sermons for                  |          |
| the Children's Hour, ... ..                  | 153      |
| Symonds, J. A., Italian By-                  |          |
| ways, ... ..                                 | 395      |
| Swinburne, A. C., a repre-                   |          |
| sentative poet, 343—A Cen-                   |          |
| tury of Roundels, ... ..                     | 398      |
|                                              |          |
| T.                                           |          |
| Tennyson, A., a representative               |          |
| poet, ... ..                                 | 334      |
| Theologische Studien und Kriti-              |          |
| ken, ... ..                                  | 201, 401 |

